MEDIA ADVISORY: OUTSTANDING VOLUNTEERS IN THE JAPANESE COMMUNITY ACKNOWLEDGED FOR THEIR DEDICATION

WHAT: The Little Tokyo Service Center will hold a Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon to honor the many dedicated volunteers who have devoted countless hours in support of the Japanese community here in Southern California. Volunteers have contributed to services for seniors, caregivers, international Japanese students, and parents through info and crisis hotlines, case management, educational workshops, counseling, and parenting classes – just to name a few. The luncheon will also feature awards recognizing exceptional volunteers and some important remarks from very special guest, the Acting Consul General of Japan in Los Angeles, Yoshimasa Tezuka.

WHEN: Monday, March 17, 2008
Luncheon & Awards: 1:30 pm – 3:30pm

WHERE: Thousand Cranes Restaurant
Kyoto Grand Hotel & Gardens
120 South Los Angeles Street
Los Angeles (Little Tokyo), CA 90012

If you would like to have press access for this event, please call (213.473.1620) or email (MLoresto@LTSC.org) Marc Loresto so that we can make arrangements for your attendance.

The Little Tokyo Service Center is a social service and community economic development agency that has been providing a wide range of services to the Los Angeles community for over 29 years.
